From

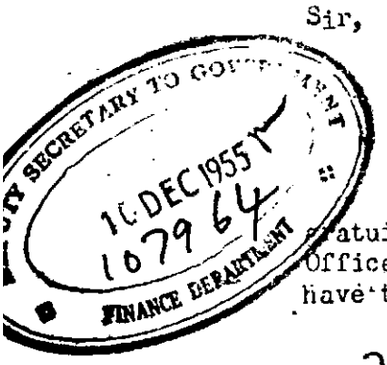
The Director of Public Instruction,
Madras.

To

The Deputy Secretary to Government,
Finance Department.

R.C.No.1261 C5/55 dated 6th December 1955.

Sir,



Sub:- Compassionate gratuity - Late C. Raman, formerly peon, Office of the District Educational Officer, South Kanara.

In submitting herewith an application for compassionate gratuity from C.Raghavan, son of Late C. Raman, formerly peon Office of the District Educational Officer, South Kanara, I have the honour to state as follows:-

2. C.Raman, who was working as a peon in the Office of the District Educational Officer, South Kanara died on 6-8-1955 leaving behind his son and a daughter. His wife had predeceased him. C. Raghavan, the son of the deceased has applied for the grant of compassionate gratuity stating that his father left no property or anything else on which he can depend upon and that the entire responsibility are showed on him.

3. The financial position as revealed from the Report of the Revenue Authorities is briefly as follows:-

4. The deceased has no landed property. He has neither assets or liabilities. His son, C.Raghavan has no properties. He has got a debt to the extent of Rs.300/- which is said to have been incurred by him to meet the expenses connected with the death of his father. He has no employment since about a year and it is rather a hard problem to maintain his family consisting of his wife and two children. The daughter of the deceased is living with her husband. The applicant is sickly too. The Revenue Authorities consider that he deserves a substantial compassionate gratuity considering the long service put in by the deceased in the Education Department.

5. The amount of General Provident Fund left by the deceased was Rs.95/- only. The deceased entered Government Service on 16-5-32 and died on 6-8-55. He has put in a total service of over 23 years. He was drawing last a pay of Rs.25/- per mensem plus Dearness Allowance Rs.19/- per mensem (Total Rs.44/- p.m.)

6. In the circumstances stated, I recommend that a compassionate gratuity of Rs.500/- (Rupees Five Hundred Only) may be sanctioned to the applicant. The service roll and ~~Provident Fund~~ of the deceased and other compassionate gratuity papers ~~were~~ are enclosed.

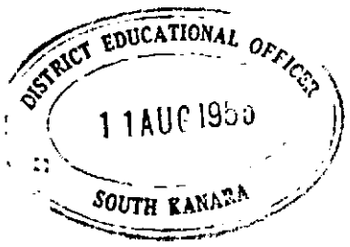
To

The District Educational Officer,

South Kanara, Mangalore.

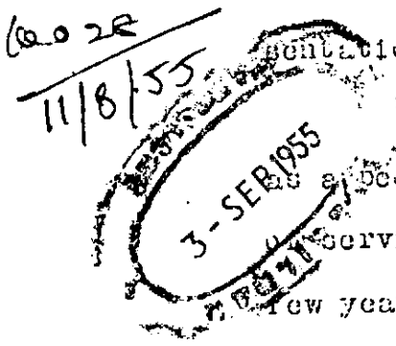


Humble application of C.Raghavan, son of C.Raman, Behind Basel Mission Press, Mission Compound, Balmatah, Mangalore 2

Dated 10th August, 1955

Sir,

I humbly beg leave to approach you with this representation for favour of your kind consideration.



My father the aforementioned C.Raman was working as a peon in your office and has put in more than 20 years service. He has died of late at our residence hardly a few years before his retirement.

I am the only son and relative of the deceased besides a sister who is married. The deceased left no property or any thing else on which I can depend upon as the entire house hold responsibilities are showed on me on account of the death of my father. I was antirely a dependent on the said deceased and am thrown to desperate circumstances ever since the death of my aforesaid father.

I am given to understand that in cases of public servants who have put in long periods of service and die before their retirement, the successors are granted reasonable compassionate gratuity in acknowledgment of their service in the department. Being entirely helpless and unable to make both ends meet, I am constrained, as the son and heir of the said deceased, to seek the said gratuity from the government through your good self

Therefore I humbly pray that this application may be received sympathetically and adequate compassionate gratuity be granted and paid over to me in the above circumstances.

For which act, I shall ever remain grateful.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Yours faithfully

C. Raghavan
